SCHOLARY PRESENTATIONS

Refereed Papers/Posters Presented at Conferences/Symposium:

De La Rosa, M., Rice, C., Rugh, D. (2005). An analysis of risk domains associated with drug transitions of active Latino gang members has been selected for Roundtable presentation during the 134th Annual Meeting & Exposition (November 4-8, 2006) in Boston, MA.

Kim, S., De la Rosa, M., Kelley, M. Drinking and driving among students in a Hispanic-serving university has been selected for Oral presentation during the 134th Annual Meeting & Exposition (November 4-8, 2006) in Boston, MA.

Poster presented at the VI National Hispanic Scientific Network Conference in Miami, Florida, September 14-16 2005

Poster presented at the VI National Hispanic Scientific Network Conference in Miami, Florida, September 14-16 2005

Toward the development of a new conceptual model to understand the drug use/violence connections. Paper presented in the American Psychological Association Annual Meeting, Toronto, Canada, August 9-14, 1996.

Selected Invitational Presentations:

De La Rosa, Mario. Latino Behavioral Science Center. A Regional Workshop and National Conference on the Challenges and Opportunities of Working to Improve Health in Hurricane-Affected Communities organized by the Regional Coordinating Center for Hurricane Response, Morehouse School of Medicine. Atlanta, Georgia. April 2006

An Analysis of Risk Domains associated with the Number of Drugs used by Active Latino Gang Members . Annual CRUSADA, Florida International University, Miami, Florida, February 2005

CRUSADA Faculty and Student Training and Mentorship Program . Annual CRUSADA, Florida International University, Miami, Florida, February 2005

Lawrence Gang Substance Project. Annual CRUSADA, Florida International University, Miami, Florida, February 2005

Latino Women Study: Creating a Health Behavior Questionnaire University of Texas at Austin, Austin Texas, November 17, 2004

Colombian First National Meeting on Drug Abuse Research. U.S. State Department, Bogotá, Colombia, August 7-9, 1991.

Plenary speaker. Eleventh Faculty/Staff Colloquium, Office of Minority Affairs, The Ohio State University. Drug Use: Its Impact Upon Minority Enrollment and Retention in Higher Education. October 9, 1989, Columbus, Ohio.

Non-print Media:

Interviewed at De Mañanita (one of the most watched Hispanic morning television shows in The United States) Telemundo TV, on the problem of stimulant abuse among students, July 2003.

Interviewed at Despierta America (one of the most watched Hispanic morning Television shows in The United States) Univision TV, on the problem of substance abuse among Latinos, June, 2003.

Interviewed at Sabado Gigante (Most watched Hispanic Television show in the United States) Univision TV, on the problem of Heroin use among Latinos, March 1991.

Interviewed by The Voice of America on the problem of "crack" use among serious juvenile delinquents, July, 1989.